CUSCO - VISIT OF THE IMPERIAL CITY

Cusco, Imperial City and Archaeological Capital of America. Absolutely worth a visit.

Time also for a mountain bike excursion between Maras and Moray to discover its surroundings.

TREKKING MACHU PICCHU

Day excursion to Machu Picchu, accompanied by an expert guide and visit of the Archaeological Park.

CUSCO - CANOA

A very effective way to visit Cusco and its surroundings is by canoe, sailing the Urubamba River and enjoying some relaxation.

VINICUNCA - RAINBOW MOUNTAIN

Guided trekking on one of the most famous spots in Peru: the multicolored mountains, called Montaña de los 7 colores, known as the Rainbow Mountains. The geographical name of the mountain is Vinicunca.

It is located at 5,200 meters above sea level.

AMAZON RAINFOREST

Three days in this wonderful place to discover its wild life and not.

We start with a 2 hour trek to visit a castaño camp.

Before dinner there is a boat excursion to go and spot the caimans,

The next day departure early in the morning to reach the starting point of the trekking route through the typical tropical forest and discover spectacular flora and fauna.

The next day, wake up very early in the morning to go and admire the parrots as they feed.

Then visit to an artisan market.

Transfer to tonight's accommodation, a very scenic skylodge: you will sleep in a completely transparent glass capsules, suspended 400 meters above the Sacred Valley of the Inca Empire, reachable only via a zip line or climbing a via ferrata. The overnight stay includes a gourmet food and wine experience and the chance to observe condors in their natural habitat.
